

Motor skills games & activities

- Teaches children how to move and complete tasks independently.
- Development of executive functions
- Promotes cognition, speech and sensory development
- Builds confidence & independence

